

TEST RIDE MV AGUSTA MISANO, 28 october 2011

Varese, October 11, 2011 - On 28 October, at Misano Circuit, MV Agusta is organizing a day of track test rides with their new 2012 model range: F4 R, F4 RR, BRUTALE R 1090 and BRUTALE 920.

For non-owners of MV Agusta, the cost for 3 test sessions sampling 3 different models will be 120 Euros, while the individual tests will cost 45 Euros each.

For all owners of MV Agusta motorcycles, and Gold members of the Factory Club, there is the possibility to book test sessions with the new models and practice on the track with their personal bikes at reduced prices.

The prices for owners of MV Agusta motorcycles are as follows:
3 test sessions + 1 session with your personal motorcycle 120 Euros
1 or 2 test session 40 Euros each
1 session with your own bike 30 Euros

For the MV Agusta Factory Club Gold members the prices are as follows:
package of 3 test sessions + 1 session with your own bike 100 Euros
1 or 2 test session 30 Euros each
1 session with your own bike 20 Euros

In addition to the test ride will be the opportunity to take part in a complete course (theory and practice) of track riding with instructors from the "Scuola Federale Corsetti", the first school established by the Italian FMI.

Costs:

Course with your own bike MV Agusta 390 Euros (300 Euros for Gold Members)

Course with MV Agusta rental 890 Euros (650 Euros for Gold Members)

All participants in the riding school will also be entitled to a free test with the bike of their choice.
